The fact that American Templarism does not fully accord with that on the continent of Europe, and in France, does not strike me as of any force, against the right of Grand Commanderies in the United States. Here we are supreme and sovereign in our own jurisdiction, any where that I know of, interfering with and sovereign in our own jurisdiction, and it matters not how much we may differ from others in Europe, one thing we do know, viz: That if Templarism is we do know, viz: That if Templarism is anything but a mockery, it is Christian, and if it is not so everywhere it is because its ritual has been manipulated by degree-manufacturers. If the Crusades if you or any body of Royal Arch Maso degree-manufacturers. If the Crusades were cosmopolitan, all the historians I have read have been greatly deceived. The Council, Chapter and Commandery work of the A. & A. & Rite, as communicated to me, and which I have since read, most certainly reveals secrets, that cannot be tolerated by governing bodies of the same, and if any Jew can take your degrees and keep the fessis, etc., he must belong to the "hickory" family.

Now, my, dear Sir and Brother, what I want to arrive at is this—that the A. & A. & B. Bite receive none into the Lodgees' A. S. Bite receive none into the Lodgees' Perfection except R. A. M., and none in Perfection except R A. M., and none in the Council except K. T. The latter thing that we should be asked to do is to chapter to define its own right, which no look it will at next session.

The latter require candidates for our degrees to receive those. I do not know, either, that any one obligation, sciemnly taken, doubt it will at next session.

If this compromise can be effected, all will be well, and peace will reign—if not obligation paramount to those of a Kadosh. I understand from your letter that you are in possession of that degree. I cannot recape my restonsibilities of the control of the con
